If the grievance cannot be settled at the second step, the grievance shall be submitted to the Board to be considered at a meeting arranged by the Board. This meeting shall, in no case, be more than twenty (20) days after the grievance enters the third step. The aggrieved, acting independently or through the Union, may present a written brief to the Board and may request an oral hearing on the grievance, which will be granted at the discretion of the Board. If granted, the hearing will be conducted by the full Board or a subcommittee of the Board, as the Board may designate.

Step 4

If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at step three, the grievance may proceed to impartial binding arbitration.
