BOARD OF EDUCATION CORE VALUES

We believe our most important work is helping to promote student success in all aspects of our educational offerings: academic, social-emotional, and extra-curricular.

We believe we must be good stewards of the taxpayer's dollars and seek to utilize resources in the most efficient and effective manner possible.

We believe that the heart of any effective organization is trust. To that end, we will model behaviors that promote respect, communication, and integrity.

We believe all organizations and individuals can continuously improve. We are committed to grow as Byron Board of Education members.
